ID REQUIREMENTS AND DIRECTIONS

ID REQUIREMENTS WHEN TRAVELING TO/FROM MEXICO:

Mexican authorities require that you hold a valid passport while in Mexico (no Sentri or Global Entry cards). U.S. citizens need to present either a passport, passport card, or Sentri/Global Entry card when returning to the U.S..

Return to the States

Follow the directions in reverse order for 6.1 miles until you reach to main road. Turn RIGHT.

Continue on this road for about 6.8 miles. You'll pass a Toyota factory on your left on your way to the toll road. Follow the sign for the toll road, bearing right onto the clover leaf.

https://maps.app.goo.gl/83BYxZVHMQFz5dDq6

Drive west on the toll road for 10.5 miles.

Note: If crossing at Tecate, continue straight, watching for the Tecate Garita signs.

You will approach the toll booth. The toll is 168 pesos (@$10). You can pay in dollars but any change will be given to you in pesos.

After paying toll, bear right and follow the sign to Tijuana / San Diego I-5.

You are now on Industrial Blvd towards the border.

Go about 5.5 miles into the industrial area until you reach the park on the right. To enter the Standard Lanes, continue straight ahead about 1 mile, following the signs for Garita de Otay.

See supplemental details below depending on whether you will be using the Standard lanes (Passport only), Ready Lanes (Passport card) or Sentri lanes (Global Entry or Sentri cards)

Supplemental Details to Standard Lane entry point

For Standard Lanes, continue straight (over bridge), following signs for Garita de Otay

Continue straight past the McDonalds.

Turn right, following sign to Garita de Otay

Continue following signs to Garita de Otay, and you will be in the standard lanes to the border.

Supplemental Details to Ready Lane entry point
(you can only use the Ready Lane if you have a RFID scannable ID)

Continuing from the Standard Lane directions from above, continue past the McDonalds for about a mile, following the signs for the airport (continuing past the turn to the Standard lanes)

Turn right towards the airport

Drive approx.. ¾ miles, until you see the San Diego I-5 sign. Bear to the right of the yellow road divider. Continue on this road for about ¾ mile as it winds around, but this time staying to the left of the yellow barriers. This will put you into the Ready Lanes.

Supplemental Details to Sentri Lane entry point

(You can only use the Sentri lane if everyone in the car has a Sentri card & the vehicle is registered)

Follow sign for Blvd Bella Artes / Zona Industrial. Turn right at the light.

Drive 0.5 miles,

then turn left onto Bella Artes

In about 1 mile, turn right into the Sentri Lane (unmarked middle lane) with Car Wash on immediate left.

Follow this lane to border crossing.